3701. Commentary:

In this verse the Qur'an is stated to have been revealed in the blessed night which elsewhere is called ليلة القدر i.e. the "Night of Destiny" (97 : 2). According to authentic traditions of the Holy Prophet, the "Night of Destiny" falls in the last ten nights of Ramadan, the month in which the Qur'an began to be revealed (2:186), to be exact, on its 24th night (Musnad & Jarīr). The blessed night, or the "Night of Destiny," is the Quranic metaphor for a period of time when spiritual darkness enshrouds the entire face of the earth and mankind wallows in the quagmire of sin and iniquity. It is then that a Divine Reformer is raised to reclaim and regenerate corrupt humanity. The night which gave to humanity its greatest Teacher and the last and is God fearing Yusuf, who if God would not have intervened might have been bewitched by Zulaikha. The secret is that human hearts possess magnetic power of love. Zulaikha's force of love was so strong that it might have attracted even a God fearing man towards her. So is it not a matter of shame that the force of a woman's magnetic love had a pull on a strong heart and a person who claims to be a pull on a strong heart and a person who claims to be a Mu'min would not possess so much magnetic force that he could even attract others towards him? This pretext can not be admitted that our tongue or our talk is ineffective. The real fault lies in the magnetic pull. So long as it is not perfect, empty talk is futile, "

Dawn Lahore Bureau

LAHORE, Feb 14: The former President of the Lahore High Court Bar Association, Sheikh Shaukat Ali, has criticised the Home Department circular, directing offi-cials to erase the "Kalima" from the places of worship of Ahmadis.

He said that the display of the 'Kalima" whether it was in mosque, temple, church or on any other place propagated the cause of Islam. "Those who have issued the erasure orders have done no service to Islam", he said.

He sair, the Ahmadis, by reciting, displaying or wearing the "Kalima" had publicly affirmed their faith in the finality of prophethood. "I think the constitutional amendment declaring the Ahmadis a minority should now be deleted", he concluded.

Govt. urged to reconsider 'Kalima' issue

Dawn Lahore Bureau

LAHORE, Feb 16: Syed Afzal Haider, member, Pakistan Bar Council, in a statement issued here on Saturday has urged the government to withdraw its circular directing divisional commissioners to erase the Kalima from the Ahmadis' places of worship.

He has also urged the immediate withdrawal of cases against those who had been arrested for wearing Kalima badges on their chests.

He demanded the release of Liaquat Husain warraich and condemned his transfer from Lahore to Sahiwal jail.

He said Warraich was working for the release and relief of political prisoners and was urging the jail authorities to provide facilities to the prisoners as provided in the jail manual.

Directive on 'Kalima' deplored

Dawn Lahore Bureau

LAHORE, Feb 13: The religion of Islam preaches peace, tolerance towards minorities and communities which hold the "Kalima-i-Tayvaba," as the cornerstone of their beliefs and towards those who participated in the struggle for Pakistan under the leadership of Quad-i-Azam.

This was stated by Malik Navid Ahmad, Chairman, Pakistan Solidarity Front, here on Wednesday. He said vested interests in order to divert the people's attention from the struggle for the restoration of democracy and the 1973 Constitution were trying to use the 'Kalimai-Tayyaba" to achieve their evil designs.

He urged the Government to release everyone arrested for displaying the "Kalima-i-Tayyaba" in their places of worship. He also appealed that the Home Secretary's directive of all divisonal commissioners in the Punjah to have the "Kalima-i-Tayyaba" removed from non-Muslims places of worship be immediately withdrawn.

Mian Ehsanul Haq, a local leader, has criticised the Home Department's circular about erasing the 'Kalima' from the Ahmadis' places of worship.

In a statement issued here on Wednesday Mian Ehsan said erasing the 'Kalima' was against the spirit of Islam and the law of the land.

He demanded that those who had been irrested for wearing the Kalims hadges should be released and these responsible for erasing the 'Kama' punished

Erasure of 'Kalima' opposed

Dawn Lahore Bureau

LAHORE, Feb. 12: Mr. Aitzaz Ahsan, Member, Pakistan Bar Council, has said that "it would be most reprehensible for any Muslim to erase the "Kalima Tayyiba" from any place whatsoever.

Apart from being contrary to the tenets of Islam, any action based on the recent directive of the Punjak Home Department "violates the constitutional guarantees on equality and freedom of worship for all citizens of Pakistan." He said that narrow-minded religious zealotry and fanatiasm must be avoided at all cost and the government must not become party to "this frenzy."

Persecution of Ahmadis criticised

KARACHI, March 11: Mr. Yusuf Masti Khan, President of the defunct PNP (Karachi division), has criticised the steps such as the removal of "Kalma-i-Tayyaba" inscription from the Ahmadiya places of worship and of the badges of same description worn by the Ahmadis etc., saying that all this amounted to "religious persecution.

In a statement he said "already the citizens of Pakistan were deprived of civil liberties and now in the name of religion the discriminatory treatment was being meted out to a religious group.

Mr. Masti Khan quoted the Quaid-i-Azam as assuring the nation that all the citizens would be treated equally, that religion was a personal affair and that there would be no interference in the performance of one's religious
