A LETTER FROM PRISON

"I am writing these lines at 6 in the morning in dire pang...There are times when tears start flowing from the eyes...With me is also my son Mahmud Ahmad who keeps me asking all the day the reason for this wrong...My answer is always: Patience, patience and more patience... I have five sons and two daughters who, trusting God, are living with their mother. When the youngest child, 6 years old, comes to visit me, he finds me and his uncle behind the twofold railing of the prison. He asks me: Father, don't you want to meet me. Thereupon I request the keeper and the child is let in. He kisses my face, embraces me and likes to cling to me. Yet, with wistful eyes, he has soon to leave the room. This scene is terribly painful.

AHMADIS DEMONSTRATE AGAINST CRUELTY, INJUSTICE AND HIGH HANDEDNESS.

The news of the decision of the Sahiwal case in which two innocent Ahmadis were sentenced to death and others to the life imprisonment was a profound shock to the members of Ahmadiyya Community in Canada.

To bring this cruel decision to the attention of the media, Canadian politicians, and diplomats in this country several proposals were discussed in a meeting of the Action Committee in the Toronto Mission House on the 18th of February 1986. Prior to this meeting the matter was also brought to the attention of Majlis Aamla of Canada on February 15,1986, by the Secretary of the Action Committee. Among other measures which the Action Committee normally takes in such matters, i.e., letters to the media, to the politicians and some persons of authority and meeting with the Members of the Parliament, it was agreed unanimously by the Majlis Aamla that if the Action Committee decides and feels necessary to hold a protest demonstration the Aamla in principle would support the decision.

The Action Committee discussed the matter at length and decided that given the nature of the decision of the Sahiwal case it was. necessary to stage a protest demonstration. Present in this meeting 1 Abdul Aziz Khalifa National President

Naseer Ahmad.

It was decided that the rally should be held in Ottawa on March 3, 1986, in front of the Pakistan Embassy and in front of the Parliament Buildings. An ad hoc committee was formed to assist the Action Committee to administer the rally and perform various duties associated with it. The following persons formed the ad hoc Committee:

Abdul Waheed Khan Hizkeil Khan Ilyas Khan Mubarak Mirza Khalid Qureshi Abdul Aziz Khalifa Moeen Janjua Naseer Ahmad Hasnat A. Seyed

Chief Marshall/Transportation Banners Preparation Food Security Information Spokesman Spokesman Spokesman Spokesman

It was estimated that we would be able to persuade enough people to fill four coaches. The committee decided that the couches should origin their journey from four different locations across the metropolitan and suburban cities at 6 A.M. on March 3rd and assemble at one final departure point at 6.30 A.M. and the final departure should be at 7 A.M. after collective silent prayer.

Mississauga, Brampton, Downsview and Scarborough all of these Jamaats had their own coaches at convenient locations. All coaches were to assemble at the Scarborough Town Centre for the final departure.

The Presidents of all these local Jamaats were made incharge of their coaches.

By the Grace of Allah the turn out was excellent and all the members arrived in time at sites of the coaches. In total, 216 Ahmadis including men, women and childern, boarded four coaches, 4 cars and one passanger van and left for Ottawa with prayers. Instructions were given to all the incharges of the coaches to brief the members about important matters, such as discipline, food distribution, and other related concerns.

The procession reached Ottawa ,as scheduled , at about 11:30 A.M. where members of Ottawa and Montreal Jamaats had already gathered and were awaiting their brothers and sisters from Toronto. By 12 at noon we were in front of the Pakistan Embassy on Slater Street marching in protest ,with banners in hands, and utmost discipline. In total we were around 300 protesters. The procession stayed in front of the Embassy till about 1 P.M. and then marched on to the Parliament Buildings.

CBC Television crew stayed with the procession all through this time and took active interest in interviewing our men, women and other members who had their relatives in trouble in Pakistan. The police was also with the procession ready to provide any service to the organizers of the protest.

The event was widely circulated in advance to the press and media through cable news network through out the country. The Action Committee also arranged to see some prominent Members of the Parliament well before the demonstration day so that support of some prominent members could be committed to our cause.

Notable among these MPs were Hon. Robert Kaplan, a liberal MP and former Solicitor General for Canada, who is also the MP for the area where our Mission House is located, John Nunziata a liberal MP and a well known politician in the country, Sergio Marchi a liberal MP and Opposition's critic for Immigration. All of these politicians sympathised with the plight of Ahmadis in Pakistan and committed their support.

Hon. Robert Kaplan was most helpful to us. He had promised us that he would go with us to the Pakistan Embassy to deliver the letter of protest to the Pakistani officials and also march with us in the procession as a token of support. He was true to his words and accompanied our National President to the Embassy and also expressed his personal and his party's concern on the treatment of Ahmadis in Pakistan to the Pakistani Officials. He later marched with us leading the procession to the Parliament Buildings. He had arranged for us a press room and had issued a press release to the Parliament Press Gallery about the event. His office extended all the necessary help to us . At the press conference which was to begin at 1;30 P.M. Hon. Robert Kaplan gave an interview to the press in support of the Ahmadis in which he stressed that he himself and his party is in full support with the Ahmadis to bring an end to the persecution in Pakistan. We are indeed very thankful to Hon. Robert Kaplan for all the help he provided to us.

At the Parliament House we were approached by another prominent MP from the Government David Kilgour who invited us to his office to discuss the Ahmadia issue. We had been in contact with David Kilgour on many previous occasions and he had written to the Minister of External Affairs about the Ahmadis in very strong terms. The meeting with him was very fruitful and we were able to bring him up to date on the recent incident of Sahiwal and Sukkar. He promised to write to the Minister of External Affairs in no uncertain terms to express Canada's interest in these two incidents.

After serving some light snacks to the members the procession started its journey back to Toronto, a distance of 400 KM. By the Grace of Allah all of this program was completed without any disruption except some minor delay in the return schedule.

CBC Television, the biggest network in the country carried the news of our demonstration in Ottawa, in its 6 P.M. prime time news cast on Friday March 3,1986.

The police in Ottawa was very happy with our discipline and remarked that they have never seen such an organized and peaceful demonstration. Some politicians were also highly impressed by the way we conducted the whole program. David Kilgour MP remarked that he has seen hundereds of demonstrations on the Parliament Building but none like the Ahmadia Community. He also stressed that one cannot jugde the impact of such demonstrations through visible means but they do have a lasting impressions.

The Action Committee would like to extend its gratitude to all those who were involved in this event in any manner. The list is very long and we cannot thank them individually but the fact is that it would not have been possible without the help of those who worked days and nights in preparing food, making banners, arranging transportation, and the members of the Action Committee on whose shoulders the final responsibility rested. The Action Committee hopes to have the same cooperation in its future programs. We would also like to extend our heartfelt cooperation to all the members who participated in this event by taking a holiday and fully assisting the organizers. The presidents of all the Halqas also deserve special thanks in this regard.

Pakistan law fought

OTTAWA — About 300 members of a dissident Moslem sect protested on Parliament Hill Monday, urging Ottawa to press Pakistan to scrap laws banning the Ahmadiyya movement. The protest followed death sentences handed down in Pakistan for two Ahmadis convicted of murdering orthodox Muslims last year.

STOP PRESS

Our Ahmadi brothers, under death sentences in Pakistan, send a message of Assalam-o-alaikum to the whole Jama'at and request for prayers. "Don't worry about us, we are fine and regard ourselves as fortunate."

Department of Religion, University of Manitoba will also co-operate with us.

Met and invited Major Perry of the Salvation Army in connection with the Interfaith Network (CIN). He assured us that he will keep us informed about this network as the planning moves forward.

We were invited by a group of Church going people in a home. They wanted to know WHAT IT MEANS TO BE A MUSLIM. They were given a talk and basic literature. They seemed quite curious and serious. They got our contact from the University.

Had some exchange of views with two Jehovah's Witnesses. Two Pakistani ladies were given some literature and tapes by our ladies.

TRANSFER

Mr. Mohammad Saeed who was our missionary in Calgary has been transferred to Toronto as Secretary of Central Mission at Toronto (Ont.). He has taken over the duties and started work.

May Allah bless this appointment for all of us.

Religious minorities in Pakistan under siege by Islamic groups

Observer News Service LAHORE, Pakistan

Since the lifting of martial law in Pakistan, fundamentalist Islamic parties have launched a deadly campaign against religious minorities

Hindu temples and Christian churches have been desecrated and worshippers attacked. The worst discrimination has been directed against the Ahmedis, an Islamic minority sect, who have been forbidden to call themselves Moslems by government decree.

In February, a curfew was declared in the town of Dera Ghazi Khan after mullahs took to the streets demanding that the body of an Ahmedi buried in a graveyard be dug up and removed because it desecrated the site.

The local administration sided with the mullahs and disinterred the body. Such incidents have been repeated in recent months, as the recently installed civilian Government of Prime Minister Mohammed Khan Junego seems too weak to take on the mullahs.

The Ahmedis have been forbidden to practice Moslem religious rites by a martial law ordinance passed in April, 1984. Since then more than a dozen have been killed by fundamentalists who have never been caught, and hundreds have been arrested by the authorities.

Last week the ruling Moslem League party of Mr. Junego declared that Ahmedis would not be eligible for party membership. Thousands of Ahmedis in the army and public services have been removed from their jobs or forced to leave because their promotions and pay were stopped.

In March a military court in Sukkur, Sind Province, sentenced two Ahmedi brothers to death for allegedly bombing a mosque. Amnesty International and Pakistani lawyers have said the charges were entirely false, cooked up by mullahs to discredit the Ahmedis.

This month more than 100 Hindu temples in Sind Province were defiled. The mullahs are also demanding that all Hindu temples in the province be replaced by mosques.

Most of the discriminatory moves have been instigated by the Jamaat-e-Islami, a fundamentalist Islamic right-wing party. The Jamaat received official patronage under the military regime of President Zia from 1977 to January, 1986.

Since the ending of martial law, the revival of political activity and the growing popularity of the secular Peoples Party led by Benazir Bhutto, the Jamaat's political base has withered

In an election situation, the Jamaat is not expected to win more than a couple of seats. Thus the party is trying to whip up Islamic fervor to counter the Peoples Party, according to many politicians. The Jamaat is small but well organized, and armed with sophisticated weapons.

THE WORLD RELIGIOUS SYMPOSIUM

The Ahmadiyya Movement in Islam, Saskatchewan Branch, cosponsored two symposia on World Religions, Christianity, Islam and Hinduism in the early part of February 1986. Following is a brief account of these symposia.

The first one which was to take place on the 4th of February, 1986 at the University of Regina, Regina, was announced to be cancelled just before the starting time. Since we had reached at the location before time and had installed the book stall and posters, the audience and visitors took great interest in the books and asked various questions. After the formal cancellation of the Symposium, a large number of audience gathered around the bookstall and a series of questions and answers started and continued till 8-30 p.m. By the grace of Allah, the message of Islam and Ahmadiyyat was conveyed to about thirty persons. Literature was distributed and books worth $26.00 were sold. Brother Shaukat A. Naseem had prepared a lecture for this occasion. Irshad Mirza, Arshad Mahmood and Shahab Ahmad went to Regina from Saskatoon to make the Symposium a success and to do any work

The second Symposium was held on the 6th of February, 1986 at the University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon. A lecture theatre with approximately 300 seating capacity was booked for this purpose. The Symposium was well planned and publicised and attracted an unexpected audience of 250. Brother Shahab Ahmad delivered a lecture and presented the Islamic point of view on the subject: 'WHICH WAY IS TRUE'. Alhamdo lillah, his presentation was well received by the audience. Brother Shahab Ahmad managed the question-answer session very efficiently. Most thorough answers and explanations left very positive impression on the audience. It was getting late and discussion was not ending. Therefore, the formal session was closed and an informal or private question-answer session was opened which continued till 11.00 Through our bookstall, we could sell books worth $10.00 and over p.m. 200 pamphlets were distributed. Most members of the Jamaat participated in the programme. Khuddam contribution was very helpful. Lajna prepared a variety of eastern dishes which was served on this occasion.

Both in Regina and in Saskatoon, we noted addresses of those persons who showed interest and asked questions. Some of their questions were answered on the spot and later by sending them appropriate literature. Two students from a Bible College, whom we met in the Saskatoon Symposium, visited our mission house and had a very friendly and encouraging discussion with Arshad Mahmood and Shahab Ahmad.

It was a grace of God that the work which started in the Symposiums is still continued.

WAY TO PROGRESS

Hazart (Mirza Ghulam Ahmad) used to enquire from friends coming from outside whether there was a mosque in their town and if they replied in the negative, Hazrat would ask them to erect one for the worship of God even if it were a raised platform of mud and clay. Hazrat used to say on these occasions that those who erect a house for the worship of God shall be blessed by Him.

The second question which Hazrat would ask them was whether there was any opposition of Ahmadiyyat in their locality and if they replied in the negative, Hazrat would say how could Ahmadiyyat make progress there. He was not at all afraid of the opposition, rather, he considered it a means to progress.

Canada's intervention sought for Ahmadies

By GERRY BELLETT

Members of B.C.'s small Ahmadiyya Muslim community want the federal government to exert diplomatic and economic pressure on Pakistan to prevent the execution of four Ahmadies sentenced to death by military tribunals.

Amnesty International has identified those facing the death penalty and has questioned the methods used to bring them to trial and cited a lack of safeguards ensuring they had an adequate defence.

Ali Haidar Upal, an Ahmadiyya missionary living in Burnaby, said action by Canada would carry a lot of weight in Pakistan

"Canada is only behind the United States and Great Britain in the amount of influence it has with the government. Canada gives millions of dollars in aid and Pakistan would not want to lose it," said Upal.

He said External Affairs Minister Joe Clark has promised the Canadian ambassador will monitor the cases, but has so far refrained from officially protesting against the proposed executions.

"We would like to see more done than. Our people are being persecuted by the government," he said.

The Ahmadies are treated as heretics by the Muslim government for their belief that the sect's founder, Hazret Mirza Ghulam Ahmad, who died in 1908, was the second Messiah prophesized in the Bible and foretold in the Koran.

In 1984 the government outlawed their religious practices, closed mosques and declared they can no longer call themselves Muslims. This persecution has been condemned by the United Nations Commission on Human Rights.

According to documents in Upal's possession, General Zia ul-Haq told a 1985 international Muslim gathering in London that his government would "persevere in our effort to ensure that the cancer of Qadianism (the Ahmadiyya movement) is exterminated."

GEN. ZIA UL-HAQ: threatened sect

Upal said thousands of Ahmadies have fled Pakistan.

(We would like to say that fleeing of Ahmadis from Pakistan in thousands seems to have been written under some misconception)

CHALLENGE

NEWSLETTER OF THE COMMITTEE OF PROGRESSIVE PAKISTANI CANADIANS

March 1986

PROTEST IN OTTAWA

On the 3rd of March about three hundred Pakistani-Canadians belonging to the Ahmadi faith demonstrated in front of the Parliament and Pakistani Embassy buildings in Ottawa.

They had gathered to protest the increasingly vicious persecution of their co-religionists in Pakistan and the violation of their human and religious rights - under the benign, even encouraging eye of Zia and his reactionary cohorts.

Death Sentences

Among their demands was the retrial, in civilian courts, of six Ahmadis - two of whom have been sentenced to death and the other four to life imprisonement - by a military court. They were sentenced for their alleged role in the deaths of two men who, as part of a mob, had stormed an Ahmadi mosque in Sahiwal to eradicate the 'kalima.'

United Nations

Last year, in April, the U.N. sub-committee on Human Rights had passed a strongly worded resolution condemning the systematic and wide scale violation of human rights of Ahmadis under the Zia regime.

General Zia, in nazi fashion, is of the view, which he has stated in an offical, public message that they (the Ahmadis) are a cancer. I will eradicate them.

In truth, the real cancer eating away at the body politic of Pakistan is General Zia and his brutal junta, responsible for the gross violation of human and democratic rights of all the people of Pakistan.

One day, in the not too distant future, the people of Pakistan will overthrow this malign tyranny and live in equality, peace and harmony.

Geneva 13.3.1986

UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS

In the 42nd session of the UN Commission on Human Rights, held in Geneva, the question of the persecution of Ahmadi Muslims in Pakistan was discussed by several speakers. Not less than six statements were made on different occasions.

A number of NGOs underlined the seriousness of the situation in which the community of Ahmadi Muslims in Pakistan found itself, even after Martial Law had been terminated. Two representatives of the Anti-Slavery Society for the Protection of Human Rights, speaking under two different items of the Agenda, drew the attention of the Commission to Resolution 85/21 in which the Sub-Commission had requested the Commission to ask the Government of Pakistan to repeal Ordinance XX of 26 April 1984, which had in effect legalised the persecution of Ahmadi Muslims by denying them their basic human rights regarding the freedom of conscience and belief and also declared the profession, practice and propagation of their religious beliefs as criminal offences.

The representative of the International Association for the Defence of Religious Liberty also spoke of the discrimination of Ahmadi Muslims on the basis of their religious beliefs.

The representative of Human Rights Advocates called the Ordinance XX a prima facie violation of the fundamental human rights as enshrined in the internationally accepted Charters, Conventions and Declarations on Human Rights. It was feared that large numbers of Ahmadis would flee the country because a domestic remedy was foreclosed.

Besides Non-Governmental Organizations, some Commission Members, too, referred to the situation in Pakistan with regard to Ahmadi Muslims.

Mr. R. H. Robertson, Head of the Australian Delegation, observed:
"My Government had hoped that the return to Civilian rule in Pakistan would be accompanied by the abolition of discriminatory laws on the treatment of minority groups, including the Ahmadis. We are concerned, however, that Ordinance XX of 26 April 1984, appears unlikely to be repealed".

Ambassador F. M. Hayes (Ireland) referred to the non-restoration of human rights in Pakistan in the following words:

"My delegation was glad to note the lifting of Martial Law in Pakistan on 30 December 1985... We venture to hope that these first steps will be followed speedily by further developments which will permit a return to a civilian and democratic form of government and enable the people of Pakistan to enjoy fully their human rights".

Ahmadis need Canadian support

By Mahmood Arshad

Following is the second in a two-part viewpoint. The writer is secretary of the information and action committee, Saskatoon, of the Ahmadiyya Movement in Islam, which has some 40 members in Saskatchewan. Ahmadi-Muslims in Pakistan, according to their own reports which are confirmed by Amnesty International, are being subjected to systematic persecution in Pakistan because of their religious beliefs.

Readers will recall the proclamation by the government of Pakistan of Martial Law Ordinance 20, April 20, 1984, by which the government prohibited four million Ahmadi-Muslims from announcing their faith as Islam.

For a government to punish its own subjects for professing and practising their faith may sound illogical to a Western mind, but for President Zia's process of Islamization, this is rather essential.

It is a black day for mankind when the head of state of a country takes pride publicly in thus abrogating provisions of the Charter of Human Rights declared by the United Nations, as Gen. Zia, president of Pakistan, has done.

In a message delivered at a public conference in London last August, Zia said, "In the last few years, in particular, the government of Pakistan has taken several stringent administrative and legal measures to prevent Qaidians from masquerading as Muslims... We will persevere in our efforts to ensure that the cancer of Qaidianism is exterminated."

Justifications given by Zia government agents that these drastic actions were taken in order to protect Ahmadis under provisions of Pakistan's constitution covering rights of minorities are nothing but white lies. Documented reports from Amnesty International and press coverage worldwide show countless incidents of human rights violations against innocent Ahmadi-Muslims in Paklstan.

Mr. Justice Jules Deschenes of Quebec Superior Court is one advocate of human rights who submitted a written statement to the Commission on Human Rights at the United Nations concerning increasing persecution of Ahmadis in Pakistan.

A resolution was passed at the 38th session of this commission which, among other things, expresses its "grave concern at the promulgation of Ordinance 20 . . . which, prima facie, violates the right to liberty and security of persons, the right of freedom of thought, expression, conscience and religion, the right of religious minorities to profess and practise their own religion, and the right to an effective legal remedy."

The resolution requested the commission to call on the government of Pakistan to repeal Ordinance 20 and to restore the human rights and freedoms of all persons in its jurisdiction.

This month, the United Nations human rights commission is scheduled to meet in full session in Geneva. The Ahmadi Movement in Islam has lodged a complaint with the commission against the government of Pakistan for its breaches of the UN universal declaration of human rights.

We understand Canada is not a member country of the commission at present. But Canada has not, in the past, hesitated to sponsor resolutions on human rights. Canada's courageous stand against apartheid was highly acclaimed by the 4,000 Ahmadi-Muslims living in Canada.

It is now the hope of Ahmadi-Muslims in Saskatchewan that the provincial government will express support to the federal minister of external affairs for sponsorship of a resolution opposing human rights violations by the Zia government of Pakistan at the commission's meeting in Geneva in February. Pakistan's cruel and inhuman Ordinance 20 must be struck down.

My sons come to visit and ask when I shall be returning home. I comfort them by the word "soon". My daughters wait throughout the day and then go to sleep in waiting...I swear in the name of God that all of us are innocent. I have spent 28 years in the Education Department in the Province of Sindh and was Assistant Professor at the College when I was arrested. I have served the government conscientiously and sincerely in the Districts of Larkana, Dadu, Nawabshah, Khairpur and Sukkhar. I am worried about my children and wife...But this does not mean that I am - God forbid - giving up hope...Please pray for me, may God show mercy to me and deliver me from this painful situation. Success or Failure -- Sir Zafrulla

Dear Sir,

I take strong exception to Mr. Ramachandran's views expressed in his article "Zafrulla - success of failure". September 30, 1985.

By drawing a comparison between Muslim Brotherhood, Freemasons and Ahmadiyya, he alleges that these associations are basically a creation of the British. Amazingly, however, he has left out the All-India Congress from this unsubstantiated presumption.

Indian history bears ample testimony to the fact that All-India Congress Party was inspired by the British. This admission was made by no less a person than Mr. Attlee, former prime minister of England, who while speaking on the Indian Independence Bill in the British House of Commons on July 10, 1947 observed:

"Just as India owes her unity and freedom from external aggression to the British, so the Indian National Congress itself was founded and inspired by men of our own race."

Mr. Ramachandran, unfortunately, seems to have been caught in his own web. He gives a left-handed compliment to Sir Zafrulla for having had a life full of worldly successes but then dishes out, "he shoud have died a happy man."

Sir Zafrulla was an outstanding orator, an eminent diplomat, shrewd lawyer and a distinguished writer who authored 18 books. His translation of the Glorious Quran has been greately acclaimed in the west. He was called to the bar at the age of 21, practised as a lawyer for 21 years, held executive office in India and Pakistan for 14 years, was a Judge, national and international, for 21 years and a diplomat for three years. Though he achieved greatness yet he led a very simple and pious life. He set up four educational trusts from where hundreds of students, widows and the needy have received tremendous aid.

What does Mr. Ramachandran has to his credit other than sheer jealousy which is devastating his cancerous mind. By closing his eyes that are coloured with extreme bias, he thinks in his own little mind that the sun has disappeared.

Sir Zafrulla was one of the galaxy of the great men of twentieth century. Despite a successful life with glittering public career he was, as the TIMES of London put it, "remarkably unpretentious and accessible."

Sir Zafrulla's death was very greatly mourned in Pakistan. Leading newspapers paid glowing tributes to the services rendered by his illustrious son in the freedom struggle of Pakistan. The President of Pakistan, General Zia-ul-Haq rightly expressed the feelingo f the people of Pakistan in the following words: "he was an edler statesman with a long and distinguished career. He rose to prominence as an advocate and was known for his legal acumen."

Yours very truly,

Zakaria Virk, 670 Sir John A Blvd. #3, Kingston Ont.

Zafrulla Khan, Sir (Chaudhri) Muhammad, Pakistani statesman (b. Feb. 6, 1893, Sialkot, Punjab, India-d. Sept. 1, 1985, Lahore, Pakistan), was Pakistan's first foreign minister (1947-54), president of the UN General Assembly (1962-63), and president of the International Court of Justice, The Hague (1970-73). He was educated at Government College, Lahore, before studying law at King's College, University of London; he was called to the bar by Lincoln's Inn (1914). Returning to India, he practiced in Sialkot and in Lahore. Zafrulla became a member of the Punjab legislature (1926) and was a delegate to the round table conferences held in London (1930, 1931, 1932) on a proposed new constitution. He was president of the All-India Muslim League (1931) and the Muslim representative on the viceroy's council (1936), and he was sent (1942) to China as the Indian government's agent general to establish relations with the Kuomintang. As Pakistan's foreign minister he was deeply involved in the disputes with India over Kashmir and the waters of the Indus, presenting his country's case at the UN. Zafrulla was a judge of the International Court, The Hague (1954-61 and 1964-73), and Pakistan's permanent representative at the UN (1961-64). Author of Islam: Its Meaning for Modern Man (1962), he belonged to the Ahmadiyah sect, which was declared non-Muslim by the Pakistan National Assembly (1974); thereafter he lived in England, visiting Pakistan only infrequently.

Purity - Key to the Quran-

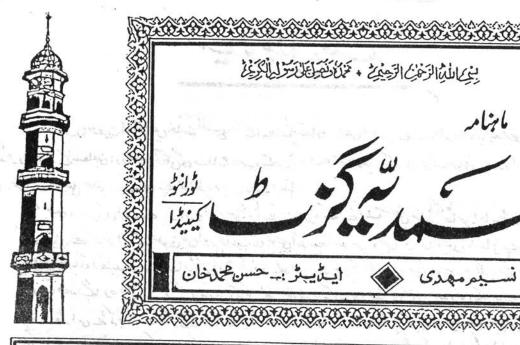

One of many characteristics of the Quran which marks it as the Word of God is that to arrive at the comprehension of its deeper meaning and significance, the seeker must, in addition to a certain degree of knowledge of the language and the principles of interpretation, cultivate purity of thought and action. The greater the purity of a person's life, the deeper and wider will be his comprehension of the meaning of the Quran (56:80)

(Sir Zafrulla Khan)

Man Reaps What He Sows-

Allah does not wrong anyone; man wrongs himself. 'Allah wrongs not people at all, but people wrong themselves' (10:45). 'Allah would not wrong them, but they wronged themselves' (9:70; 29:41; 30:10). Allah gives man his choice, and as he sows he reaps.' Whoso desires the harvest of the hereafter, we give him increase in his harvest, and whose desires the harvest of this world, We give him thereof, but in the hereafter he has no share' (42:21)
